- 1) Please discuss your milestones completed this quarter
- Significant milestones have been achieved in the implementation of the ARORP program. With the hiring of Khaalis Oneill as Program Director and the addition of culturally specific trained Peer Support Specialists Cassie Cooper and Latisha French, our team is now fully equipped to oversee and deliver the program's objectives. Additionally, the successful launch of our Mental Health Therapist (MHT) Contract Program, led by Chris Ramsey, marks a pivotal advancement in providing comprehensive mental health support to the community.

 We continue our efforts to provide Peer Recovery, Treatment, Recovery and Training services to White and Van Buren counties. We have taken great strides to use all staff we have in the organization to reach the Native American, Marshallese Pacific Islander and Latin/Hispanic Communities. We have been successful with our outreach efforts and activities as well. The mental health therapist has seen a number of participants and services are ongoing.
